Welcome

WELCOME

Welcome to the first issue of our monthly newsletter. If you are receiving this it means you are a valued customer or a friend of Wes Iseli & Party Magic.

This newsletter will keep you informed on upcoming events, public performances, and magic and entertainment news, as well as keep you in touch with the owners of Party Magic: Wes & Natalie Iseli.

I hope you enjoy!

LAST MONTH

Fall is my favorite time of year. The cool crisp evenings, the changing leaves, the pumpkin patches and all those fall parties.

Natalie and I love to dress up for Halloween. This year we were Little Red Ridding Hood and the Big Bad Wolf, (she was Little Red Ridding Hood). On Halloween we had some frinds come over to our house and we had a fall costume party of our own.

THIS MONTH

We have several private shows on the books for the month of November. The only public show we have scheduled is our Illusion show on November 25th at Madison High School in Vienna, VA. The show starts at 7:00 pm. For ticket information call us toll free at 1 877 987 4201 anytime.

Who is this guy?

If you have never heard of Mac King you're missing out. He has been around for a really long time and I have footage of him performing in 1984 for an International Brotherhood of Magicians convention in Kentucky. Not only was he fantastic back then, but he has only gotten better.

Here is what Mac King has to say about his own Las Vegas show:

“ I’ve been doing The Mac King Comedy Magic Show here at Harrah’s on the Las Vegas strip since January of 2000. I’m gratified that it’s consistently the highest rated magic show in town, but I’m even more proud of the fact that it appeals to people of all ages and walks of life. Adults appreciate the humor that is over their kid’s heads. I’ve gotten standing ovations from tattooed biker guys and prim grandmas. Even surly teenagers seem to like it. Plus, the price is reasonable.”

Picture is of Mac King & Wes in 2006

Natalie and I saw Mac in 2006 while we were vacationing in Vegas and our stomachs were sore from laughter. After the show was over we waited to speak with Mac and he was very down to earth and one of the nicest performers you would ever want to meet. We left that day thinking we would love to come back the next day and see his show again, but we had so much to see and do while we were in Vegas. I guarantee the next time we are back we will go see his show again.

He has a few clips on youtube.com

He also has a line of magic kits that are very nice. They are not only for beginners, but I have magician friends who also collect these.

It is the (Magic... in a Minute) magic kits & tricks.

The Magic and Illusion show Preparing for Season 3

Natalie and I started The Magic and Illusion Show with the hopes that we could make a name for ourselves and put together a great show that would bring out the community to enjoy live entertainment in towns all over the East Coast. We have seen a lot in the past 2 seasons , we have performed in Georgia, West Virginia, Maryland, Tennessee, Ohio, and of course Virginia. We love being on the road and we love traveling. We do a lot of fundraisers for schools and county fairs. We have had great responses to our show and 90% rebook for the next year. With schools reporting profits of up to $8000.00 just off ticket sales. We hope to be doing this for a long, long time.

We have had great responses to our show and 90% rebook for the next year. With schools reporting profits of up to $8,000.00 just off ticket sales.

This year’s theme is based on I LOVE LUCY and yes, Natalie will be a part of this show .

Magic News

The Merlin Award goes to...

The International Magicians Society is the World’s Largest Magic Society as recorded in the Guinness Book of World Records with over 37,000 members worldwide! The Merlin awards have been handed out for the 2008 season, these awards are magic version of the Oscars. The winner of the best magic show of 2008 is Jeff McBride.

He can now be seen in his own Vegas show (Magic At The Edge) at the Palace Station Casino. Check him out he is not only a great magician but a teacher of magic.

He also has plenty of clips on youtube.com

The Magical Life of Jordan

The Magical Life of Jordan a work in progress, by Wes Iseli

This is a story of a boy named Jordan, who is the son of one of today's top illusionists. Jordan had picked up a lot of secrets of magic and finds this information isn't just for stage, it can also be used on a daily basis.

Jordan gets to test out his theory when he is sent to a boarding school called Wellington Academy. On his first day at his new school he overhears that $3,000.00 was stolen from the drama department and he hopes to solve this mystery using only the tricks of the trade and a lot of magical knowledge.

This book also comes with a DVD that will teach you some of the magic tricks that Jordan performed in the book.

Plus a bonus effect: You will receive the secrets and necessary props to make household items levitate such as dollar bills, finger rings, and playing cards.

This book was finished at the beginning of 2008 and the DVD was filmed soon after.

The first run should be complete and ready for sale sometime during the first quarter of 2009.

Party Magic News

Criss Angel's New Show

The reviews are in and it does not look good!

The Las Vegas Review says, "There's shockingly little magic to be seen in this much-anticipated Cirque du Soleil spectacle constructed around a celebrity magician. No shock, no awe, precious little surprise, even.

"Cirque throws everything in its considerable arsenal of stage genius at Angel — the expected array of lush, loud music, expert dancers and aerialists, lavish settings and boundary-breaking special effects, all intended to amaze.

"The single most amazing thing about "Believe" is that it's still so boring. For a reported $100 million, Cirque has bought itself its first bona fide bomb."

Columnist Doug Elfman from the Las Vegas Review said, "I interviewed more than a dozen people after Friday's and Saturday's shows, and I listened to groups chat after they exited the theater. They weren't just disappointed. Some were enraged."

Selling tickets may just be his best trick!

Teach a trick

The Clock Trick

- * Put your finger on the 12.
- * Now think of any number on the clock.
- * Now spell that number starting with 1. Example if you are thinking 7 you spell s-e-v-e-n and you would end up on 5.
- * Now spell the number you are now on.
- * Now spell your new number.

Your finger should now be on a new number And that number is.
